World Migratory Bird Day Kickoff

Uncommon Facts About Common Birds

Stan Tekiela, renowned wildlife photographer and author, will present his fun and entertaining program “Uncommon Facts About Common Birds.” He will include exceptional photos and fascinating facts and tidbits about some of the birds people love to hate along with the more common birds in our yards. You will never look at these birds the same way again!

Annual Bird Festival at Trempealeau National Wildlife Refuge – May 14, 2022

7 AM to 12:30 PM

Join us at our family friendly Annual Bird Fest to celebrate World Migratory Bird Day (WMBD)! The theme for this year’s event is “Dim the Lights for Birds at Night”.

Activities include:

- Early morning bird hike
- Painting the Prairie art session
- Wildflower Walk in the prairie with a Refuge volunteer
- DIY fun and easy bird feeder sessions.

In order to follow USFWS COVID-19 guidelines and safety precautions ALL Saturday Refuge activities require pre-registration. To register, contact Dana Schelling at 608-539-2311 ext.1
